

MPH SPECIALIZATIONS

Epidemiology Track

The epidemiology track provides rigorous training in the knowledge and skills for analyzing community health problems, with emphasis on how to measure and describe the health of populations.

Health Management and Policy Track

The Health Management and Policy track addresses the rapid changes occurring in both the private and public sectors of healthcare.

MD/MPH Dual Degree

Eastern Virginia Medical School offers a five-year MD/MPH dual degree program for students who have been admitted to the institution's MD program. The dual degree program leads to both the Doctor of Medicine and the Master of Public Health degree in either of the two specialized tracks.

Graduate Certificates

- Core Public Health
- Epidemiology
- Healthcare Management
- Implementing Change and Achieving High Performance in the Healthcare Environment

MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

EASTERN VIRGINIA MEDICAL SCHOOL
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

Accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH)

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The CEPH-accredited Eastern Virginia Medical School (EVMS) Master of Public Health (MPH) degree program focuses on issues affecting the community: the promotion of wellness, the prevention of disease, the protection of the environment and the most effective use of resources to accomplish these goals.

Students may earn an MPH in Epidemiology or Health Management and Policy with online and evening options allowing for degree completion within five semesters. Small class sizes, highly accessible and experienced faculty, and state of the art facilities of a medical school all make the EVMS MPH program an excellent choice for those interested in a career in public health. Graduates in our program have careers with state health departments, Sentara, Children's Hospital of The King's Daughters, CareFirst BCBS, Baylor Scott and White Health, military and government agencies such as CDC, FDA, and U.S. Navy.

WHY CHOOSE OUR PROGRAM

FLEXIBILITY

Take online or in-classroom evening courses so you can complete your degree within five semesters.

COMMUNITY

Go beyond the classroom to learn, volunteer and contribute to the health of the community.

GLOBAL

Study abroad during a summer course and gain a global perspective on public health.

RESEARCH

Conduct research in collaboration with investigators at EVMS and partner institutions.
